

Restore the Canopy

PLANT A TREE

What kind of trees are offered in 2021?

BLACK OAK

quercus valutina

Planting Sites	Residential & Parks, Wide Median, City Parkway, Restricted Sites, but not under utility lines
Mature Height	Large: 50-60'
Mature Width	spread of around 40-70'
Form	Irregular, Round

Growth in First 10 yrs	Moderate: 12 - 13" per year
Light Required	Full Sun
Ideal Digging Season	Spring or Fall
Ideal Soil Type	Takes Acid Soil, Dry Soil

PIN OAK

quercus palustris

Planting Sites	Residential & Parks, but not under utility lines
Mature Height	Large: 60-75'
Mature Width	spread of around 25-40'
Form	Pyramidal

Growth in First 10 yrs	Fast: more than 24" per year
Light Required	Full Sun
Ideal Digging Season	Spring or Fall
Ideal Soil Type	Requires Acid Soils Intolerant to Alkaline Soils

RED OAK

quercus rubra

Planting Sites	Residential & Parks, Median, City Parkway, but not under utility lines
Mature Height	Large: 60-75'
Mature Width	spread of around 45'
Form	Rounded: 45' diameter (15 yards)

Growth in First 10 yrs	Moderate: 24" per year
Light Required	Full Sun or Partial Shade
Ideal Digging Season	Spring or Fall
Ideal Soil Type	Tolerates Acid Soils Moderate Alkaline Soil Tolerance

WHITE OAK

quercus alba

Planting Sites	Residential & Parks, Wide Median, City Parkway, but not under utility lines
Mature Height	Large: 50-80'
Mature Width	spread of around 100'
Form	Broad, irregular, round

Growth in First 10 yrs	Slow to moderate: 12-24" per year
Light Required	Full Sun
Ideal Digging Season	Spring or Fall
Ideal Soil Type	Tolerates Acid Soils Intolerant to Alkaline Soils

